

HOW WELL DO I KNOW MY TEEN?

How would you answer these questions before the Parent University Anti-Bullying Presentation? Your answers might be different after the presentation. Take this test and attend to learn more.

I know who my teen's friends are:

- My teen doesn't bring his/her friends home, so I don't know.
- My teen has no friends.
- My teen brings their friends home often and I know them by name.

My teen feels significant in our home:

- My teen has chores and input into the family activities and rules
- I tell my teen what to do when I need something done.
- My teen has no input.

I know where my teen is whenever my teen is out of the house.

- My teen is gone most of the time, there is no way to know where he/she is all the time.
- My teen is always home and doesn't go out.
- My teen talks to me every day about his/her activities.

I know what my teen writes:

- I found a poem about suicide that my son/daughter wrote
- My teen shares his/her writings with me.
- I am too busy to read what he/she writes.

I have talked with my teen about experiencing bullying at school:

- As a bully
- As a bystander
- As a target

My teen has a facebook page:

- Yes, but I don't visit their page.
- I don't know.
- Yes, and I have their password.
